

A Full Day Training Encounter with

POINTS of YOU The Coaching Game

Expand your Professional Toolbox with this powerful, innovative Group Process and Facilitation tool

The Coaching Game is a powerful, experiential tool for working with both groups and individuals, generating clear, quality communication that stimulates thinking, discussion, and cooperation. The game invariably generates an enthusiastic response from a group, thereby reducing confrontation while increasing readiness to “get down to business” and share workplace-related insights.

This incredibly versatile tool can be used with:

Individuals: The game allows players to take a time-out and look at life from another perspective. It's appropriate for use by Executive and Life coaches, therapists, teachers, counselors, instructors, and social workers.

Organizations: By activating both sides of the brain, the Coaching Game is a stimulant for innovation. Its use upgrades organizational activities, generates quality interaction between employees, & enables players to examine workplace dilemmas from a new vantage point.

The Coaching Game is used by Team Leaders, HR Directors, Organizational Consultants, Trainers, Managers, Coaches, & Facilitators for activities and tasks such as:

- Team development • Leadership development
- Feedback processes • Recruiting and interviewing
- Defining a vision and goals • Sales training
- Brainstorming • Staff meetings
